CIRCULAR

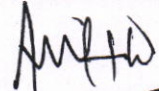

Subject: - Bypassing of District Level Officers.

It has been observed that some of the sub ordinate officers (B.D.O's) are making direct correspondence with this office after bypassing their District Level Officers and are creating indiscipline in the Department. This sort of affair on their part has been viewed seriously and is not tolerable at this Direction office level.

Moreover, some of the officers are submitting various types of communications to the undersigned in a casual manner and are just endorsing the same without their comments and line of action to be initiated at this office level which also predicts casual approach at their level. Such practices/attempts on the part of these officers need to be arrested forthwith as this office will never entertain any such correspondence being communicated to the undersigned.

In view the above facts, it is enjoined / impressed upon all concerned subordinate officers/officials of this Department to strictly adhere to these instructions and comply the same in letter and spirit without any violations.

Hence forth, deviations if any in compliance of these instructions shall be viewed seriously which may be noted.
